Irshad Manji is the bestselling author of The Trouble with Islam Today: A Muslim's Call for Reform in Her Faith. This open letter exposes the disturbing cornerstones of mainstream Islam today. As a faithful Muslim, Irshad ultimately presents a positive vision that renews Islam's own tradition of critical thinking, known as "ijtihad". To help young Muslims beat the censorship of their countries and families, Irshad has even posted free translations of her book online. Whether sparring with HBO's Bill Maher or FOX's Bill O'Reilly, Irshad has a media profile that draws large and diverse audiences. She is also the creator of a documentary entitled "Faith Without Fear", which follows her journey to reconcile Islam with freedom and human rights. Irshad is Director of the Moral Courage Project at New York University. It develops young leaders who will challenge conformity and champion creativity. They include reform-minded Muslims, whom Irshad is strengthening through her books and films.

LISA MYERS

Fee Range: Please Inquire

NBC News Senior Investigative Correspondent

After years of distinguished reporting as NBC's chief congressional correspondent, Lisa Myers was tapped in 2002 to lead NBC's investigative team. Her team recently produced a highly acclaimed series on missed opportunities in both the Clinton and Bush administrations to move more aggressively against Osama Bin Laden and Al Qaeda. Myers covered seven presidential campaigns and was a floor reporter for NBC at the last four Democratic and Republican conventions. She received an Emmy nomination for a series of reports in 1999 and had a number of exclusives during the Clinton scandals. In 1998, Vanity Fair recognized Myers as one of the 200 Most Influential Women in America and she has been honored with annual awards from American Women in Radio and Television on two occasions.

LORETTA LAROCHE

Fee Range: $15,000 - $25,000

PBS Star & Expert on Stress Management

Loretta LaRoche is an acclaimed PBS star and speaker on stress management. In today's stress-filled world, it takes a gifted presenter like LaRoche to bring the healing power of humor alive for us. Behind her irreverent, unconventional, and just plain funny style, Loretta helps her audiences see "the folly of their ways" and put their lives back in perspective. In addition to the fun and games of her presentation, her work is serious. She addresses health care professionals and corporate audiences, focusing on how we have lost sight of what's important in life, and making a convincing case for the health benefits of life with joy and laughter. The "Joy of Stress" and "Humor Your Stress" are her two highly successful PBS specials. She is an adjunct faculty member for The Behavior Institute of Medicine, an affiliate of Harvard Medical School.

VICKI LAWRENCE

Fee Range: $15,000 - $25,000

Emmy Award-Winning Actress, Comedienne, & Entertainer

Vicki Lawrence is one of the most beloved television personalities of her generation. Plucked out of total obscurity as a high school senior, Vicki went on to become part of the now-legendary cast of the "Carol Burnett Show". "I went to the Harvard School of Comedy in front of America," says Ms. Lawrence of her Burnett Show training. In the seventh season, and hundreds of hilarious sketches later, at the ripe, old age of 24, Vicki created her most endearing character to date, Thelma Harper, or Mama as she is better known to her fans. After the Carol Burnett Show, Vicki went on to star in "Mama's Family", which consistently topped the ratings for its entire six-year run of original shows. Mama has attained almost a cult status among her legions of loyal television viewers, who still enjoy her in reruns twice daily throughout most of the country.

SHIRLEY JONES

Fee Range: $15,000 - $25,000

Academy Award-Winning Actress; Broadway & Television Star; Entertainer

The Shirley Jones story is the quintessential American Cinderella dream revisited so often for so many, real and unreal, it is almost Hollywood legend. Indeed, it is difficult to not know Shirley, as she was the matriarchal head of a madcap brood known as the Partridge Family. For five years, Jones played Mrs. Partridge, the humorous, not-so down to earth mother of five. Her acting career began on Broadway starring as the nurse in "South Pacific". Within a year, she would be in Hollywood to appear in her first film "Oklahoma!" with her idol, Gordon MacRae. In 1960, she would be cast as the vengeful prostitute in the Richard Brooks dramatic film "Elmer Gantry". Shirley would win the Oscar for Supporting Actress. Now a day, Shirley is busy speaking to corporate America about her illustrious career. Shirley will delight your audience with humorous stories, songs from her Las Vegas shows, and inspirational messages from her heart.

CHERYL TIEGS

Fee Range: $25,000 - $35,000

The First American Supermodel

Model Cheryl Tiegs made a splash in the 1978 swimsuit issue of Sports Illustrated that changed her career. The now-famous photograph, which featured Tiegs in a seemingly innocent white swimsuit, epitomized her perfect combination of girl-next-door innocence and innate sexuality. The Sports Illustrated feature led to a wealth of opportunities, including the cover of Time Magazine and a $1.5 million contract with Cover Girl cosmetics. Recently, she reentered the fashion business with a new line of women's wear (sold exclusively on QVC), as well as a line of wigs and hair accessories for Revlon Cosmetics. In November 2000, at a gala at the Beverly Wilshire, Tiegs was honored as the first MAC Fashion Icon, a fitting tribute to the all-American girl who became the first American supermodel.

SHELLEY MORRISON

Fee Range: $25,000 - $35,000

Actress; Breast and Lung Cancer Survivor; Community Activist

After more than forty years in show business, actress Shelley Morrison, who plays the wisecracking Rosario on the hit NBC series "Will and Grace," has more than her share of stories. A tireless worker for charity (L.A. Shanti and A.N.G.E.L.S Day), she takes pride in portraying an older, Hispanic woman who is tough, smart and can hold her own. Morrison has received a commendation from the city for her effort to preserve her neighborhood during the 1992 riots that destroyed a shopping mall just behind her home and joined other "celebrity knitters" including Elizabeth Taylor and "Will and Grace" co-star Debra Messing, to knit blankets for a sale benefiting the NY Police and Fire Widows' and Children's Benefit Fund. Recently, she led the inspirational and uplifting "Sea of Pink" survivors' ceremony to kick off the Susan G. Komen "Race for the Cure" in Los Angeles. She has survived two bouts with cancer, and retains a spirit of peace and optimism that is as infectious as her winning smile.

OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN

Fee Range: Please Inquire

Consummate International Country & Pop Singer; Actress & Breast Cancer Survivor

Olivia Newton-John skillfully made the transition from popular country-pop singer to popular mainstream soft-rock singer, becoming one of the most successful vocalists of the '70s. The transition itself wasn't much of a stretch-her early '70s hits "I Honestly Love You" and "Have You Never Been Mellow" was country only in the loosest sense-yet the extent of her success in both fields was remarkable. In 1992, she announced that she had breast cancer, which was only the latest in a series of tragedies and misfortunes that had plagued her throughout what she later described as "the worst year of my life." Confident that she has beaten her illness, Olivia devotes most of her time to family, environmental causes, and music.
